

Give Wild Animals SPACE!

WILD ANIMALS ARE important to the Kansas ecosystem!

Rabies is spread by infected animals scratches or bites.

Wild Animals could spread Rabies to people and pets.

Look but don't touch wild Animals!

Report scratches + animal bites to your vet. They will help you.

Get your pet a Rabies VACCINATION

Wild animals are free to roam in Kansas. Wild animals should not be kept like pets!

